The last king of Saratov, he possesses no memory of his life before becoming a ghost. This hobgoblin ghost assisted Genesis Gambit during the Saratov Job. He asked that, if you ever find out more about the kind of person/king he was, that you would return to tell him.

(Midjourney has a hard time with hobgoblins, this image is as close as I could get for now. He's a ghostly man with long black hair and fancy blue clothes.)
