The worst of the worst. Cruel, sadistic, almost impossible to control, no thought to ethics or collateral damage. The Blood Skulls are hired when their employer wants to send a message, not just complete a job.

Base: Corpse Lake. A small town and fort along a lake (once known by another name), the Blood Skulls massacred the town and threw the bodies in the lake, fouling it. That was long ago, but the reputation and name remain.

Notable People: Their commander is a brutal but brilliant human known only as the Judge. Other infamous members are Cowl, a dwarf wizard, Morag, a witch, and Lovelace, an assassin.
