Penumbra is the smallest mercenary company in the Kingdoms, but they command a high price. They fill the role of assassin’s guild, but undertake all manner of covert missions. Almost exclusively humans, Penumbra is actually a large extended family that lives and trains communally (like real-world Iga and Koga ninja clans). Missions are carried out by “claws”, small groups of three to five highly trained warriors.

Base: the village of Rosk.

Notable People: Penumbra uses ceremonial names to signify their role in the family. Volk (“wolf”) is head of the family, the protector and decision maker. Miren (“calm”) is Volk’s advisor. Sova (“owl”) is their most skilled assassin.
