The thieves guild of the Broken Kingdoms. The Clock has a major presence in each of the five cities, but is also active in smaller towns. The Clock is famous for being exceptionally daring, and takes risks that other thieves wouldn't dream of - such as knowingly crossing the Shroud.

The Clock is led by the senior members from each of the five cities; these five leaders together are called the Wheel. Only two of the five leaders are publicly known: Luka, a bugbear who runs a coffeehouse in Riga, and Marigold Mossport, a halfling who runs an art gallery in Baku.
