Pits in aqua, triangles are caltrops,,, we line the rest of hthe hedges with caltrops and nails on boards as well. We put furniture in the south gap (red squares). Rok needs to be out front to do his dance of death. Trigger has a trench of pyro along the hedge too.,

Were going to potentially light the furniture on fire with lantern oil. We'll shoot that with a flaming arrow. Hair trigger crossbow traps in the pile as well.

Engage!!! Spectre ices one in the temple in a single blow.

Rok does his death blossom. Fight happens. Lots of dead. Some beefire guys come in from the back. We light the barriers on fire, Spectre stabs from behind. Trigger messes people up from behind. One sneaks throught the hedge.

And there's a giant boar now.

Being ridden by Logan Silverthorn:

We kill Logan and then ask Rigga to start explaining why this idiot was after her for reals.

All the other baddies scatter. We repair shit and caravan north.

Valko plans to continue northwest to Granite Hills. He is going to take Rikka with him, she will do some penance for screwing over Logan.
