The Collectors are a herd of goliath from the dry, barren stretch of mountains above Riga. Decades ago they signed a contract to act as the enforcers and protectors of the Bank, and have become ubiquitous within the city and anywhere there is a Bank presence. The partnership has been a perfect match thus far; the Collectors are disciplined, efficient, and brutal (when necessary). Though, strangely, they often mock material wealth, and many wear armor made from gold coins. Morok, the Captain of the Collectors, is Radavara Lucyk's strongest supporter and ally .
